In Culture and Tradition

Portugal is a country full of culture, customs and tradition.

From Sotavento to Barlavento, the Algarve is a region marked by its people, its traditions and its historical past.

Explore the most emblematic lands of the Algarve, taste the typical snacks of each location and get to know the hands that still work on regional crafts today.

Cork Route

Spend a morning discovering the noblest traditions of the Algarve. Discover the entire artisanal process of preparing cork, an ancestral technique of our culture. If you wish, you can also participate in a workshop and make a cork souvenir to take with you.

Afterwards, a visit to the costume museum will take you on a journey through the history of Algarve clothing and customs.

End this morning with a special menu, designed around Algarve gastronomy, in our Saudade restaurant: an Algarve table filled with typical dishes from the region: xarém, oysters, roe salad, fish and seafood of the day, grilled meats and side dishes as “montanheira” salad and baked potato, finishing with the typical flavors of fig, almond and orange in delicious desserts.
